

RESEARCH PLANNER (PART II)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Librarian: _____
(If completed with a librarian)

VI. Relevant Subject Headings and Descriptors

Identify and list subject headings and descriptors for the databases that are most important for your topic.

Library Catalogue & WorldCat

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Database: _____

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Database: _____

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Database: _____

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

VII. Subject Bibliographies

Search the Library Catalogue and WorldCat to identify any subject bibliographies that have been published on your topic or on a broader topic (remember to use the word “bibliography” as a subject term when you are searching).

---

---

---

---

VIII. List the most important scholars and researchers who have written on your topic or on related topics.

Analyze your previous searches and start reading secondary literature to identify these researchers.

<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>

List databases, indexes, and bibliographies that you can search to identify and locate other works by these authors.

<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>

IX. Possible Primary Sources

What types of primary sources would have been produced on your topic? What types of primary sources are likely to have survived?

<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>